

From Krupp Files "Russian Camp Kraemerplatz, Camp Reports" - under K B - 27 in the possession of the Prosecution.

Russian Camp Kraemerplatz, 18 May 1942
Wei.

TO: Herr Dr. Beusch (Initial): B.

Re.: Labor utilization of Russian Civilians

Camp Census 1101 Persons

Arrivals on 16 May 1942 a total of 62 persons

Labor utilization	793 persons
Sick	99 "
not utilized	169 "
permanently in the
camp	- 13 - "
	1.101 persons	1101 Persons.

Type of complaints of those reported sick:

Swollen legs and/or body (hunger-oedema) 4 (9), alleged lung diseases 5 (1), hand-, arm- and leg-injuries (accident) 10 (10), eye trouble 3 (3), menstruation 5 (13), inflammation of the testicles 2 (), stomach trouble 3 (), rest for health's sake 2 (), heart trouble 4 (), toothache 1 (), ear-ache 1 (1), Headache 4 (1), chest pains 6 (), backache and pain in sides 9 (1), rheumatic complaints 2 ().
38 persons are, because of body ailments, not fit for utilization and will be transported back this week.

Food on 17 May 1942:

in the morning: per person 300 grams of bread
at noon: potatoes, stew, apples with rhubarb
in the evening: tomato soup with filler

The food was sampled; it was good.

(signed) Weihberg
Camp Manager.

(signed) Wilshaus

- End of Document -