were apprehended in the camp and sent to work. The other 8 men had meanwhile left the camp and had gone to the plant. After my return to the plant I was told that the 8 men had arrived in the meantime.

The Dutchman Everas from the Habenhorst camp said that he had not been asked to come to work.

The Dutchman BESAESS from the Weidkamp camp was retained by the camp leader, as in his capacity of musician he had played on the evening before at a friendly gathering of the camp inmates.

Frintonerstr. The Italian Maniulli had overslept. (Serlostr. 12, private camp quarters).

The Eastern workers Pichburg and Aniranikow could not be found at the camp.

The Eastern worker Leutschenko is suffering from eye trouble. His eyes were swollen.
