I,

Dr. med. Ferdinand RUMSTADT, born 27 August 1910 in Eberbach, know that I render myself liable to punishment by giving a false affidavit. I herewith declare on oath the following, to be submitted as evidence to the Nuernberg Military Tribunal.

I distinctly remember that Herr von BUELOW, in the air raid night of the 23/24 October 1944, came to the hospital at approximately 2 o'clock in the morning, with a badly cut wound on his upper lip, which was bleeding profusely. He told me that on his way to the main administrative building, or rather to the Dechenschule, while motor-cycling through the ruins of Westendstrasse, he had collided with an iron bar jutting out from the ruins. In doing so he had torn open the whole of his upper lip. I treated his injury surgically in the operating theater, that is to say, after a local anaesthetic I cleaned his wound and put stitches in. After receiving this treatment Herr von BUELOW walked home. He presented himself once more several days later for final treatment.
