Essen, 11 December 1947

AFFIDAVIT

I hereby declare on oath that the following information supplied by myself is the pure truth.

After the air raid on Essen on 5 March 1943 Herr Karl Eberhardt and his wife took temporary refuge on 6 March 1943 in my home at Drosselstrasse 20, Essen-Stadtwald. About 8 or ten days later Herr Eberhardt took his wife to her relatives at Hof Offenthal near St. Gearshausen, and from there he returned on 21 March 1943, two days before his birthday, to my home. Then he went to Hugel ("the Hill"), where, after having been in Essen the whole day, he spent the evening of his birthday on 23 March 1943 with my wife and myself in our home.
