Official Gazette for the Government General 1941/No.12

Ordinance concerning distribution of manpower, labor allocation, vocational counseling, and apprenticeship assignments.

Dated 20 February 1941.

Article 1

All questions pertaining to the utilization of labor, in particular distribution and exchange of manpower, labor allocation, vocational counseling, and apprenticeship assignments, will be decided by the government of the Government General (Department for Labor) exclusively.

Article 2

Labor allocation, vocational counseling, and apprenticeship assignments will be carried out by the Kreishauptmann (Stadthauptmann) - employment office - exclusively.

Article 4

(1) Anybody acting in violation of the directives of this ordinance or of directives and orders to be issued for the implementation thereof, in particular anybody influencing the distribution of manpower by unlawful means will be punished with imprisonment and with fine, or with either one of these punishments.

(2) Criminal proceedings will be instituted only upon request. The request can be retracted. The Kreishauptmann (Stadthauptmann) is authorized to file the request.

(3) If the request for criminal proceedings is not filed or if the request is retracted, the Kreishauptmann (Stadthauptmann) can through written decision impose disciplinary fines not to exceed 200 Zlotys for each single violation on the guilty persons. No appeal can be lodged against the decision imposing a disciplinary fine. Disciplinary fines will be collected as administrative fines.
