

Shortly after the seizure of power the conspirators began to develop as a part of the State machinery , secret political police forces . They originated in Prussia , where by decree of the defendant Goering the Gestapo was established in 1933 . This development will be dealt with in the case against the Gestapo . By 1934 the Reich-fuehrer-SS had become the chief of these secret political police forces in all the states of Germany except Prussia, and deputy chief of the Prussian Gestapo .
